

WELCOME TO THE CIVIL LITIGATION TEAM

KNIGHT
POLSON

SOLICITORS

Our new Civil Litigation Team has experience in handling most types of Litigation. As part of our service the team is able to call upon and take advantage of its close association with specialist Experts and Barristers in order to help meet your interests.

We recognise the importance of our clients' business interests; success in our Clients' business is vital to the success of our business.

We encourage our clients to consult us not just as means of last resort, when Court Proceedings seem to be the only way forward. We look to other methods of dispute resolution, such as negotiation or mediation, in order to reach a settlement before resorting to litigation. Nonetheless, we can also act, where your interests need to be protected, by robust action in the Courts.

In all cases we look to achieve the best possible outcome for you by ensuring that:

- The legal issues are clearly explained to you at the outset
- You are made aware of the prospects of success with your claim or defence
- The matter remains cost effective and you receive regular cost updates

If you would like more information about the services the Team can offer, or if you need to discuss any particular problem, please contact one of the Team by e-mail or telephone.
